We used our I CAN power to overcome the problem of discrimination! Many of us felt it was mean and unfair, we wanted to tackle it. This is our journey... Which of the solutions would you try?

I recently shifted from Myanmar to Taiwan and I feel very lost here...
Sing-nan Elementary School, Taiwan

My friend from school was burnt in an accident and now she feels so conscious of how she looks she has stopped coming to school
PUMS Rastha, India

We noticed that most people are not aware and sensitive to those with disabilities.
Centro Escolar da Gandra, Portugal

My uncle who is gay is ridiculed for being with his boyfriend. I’ve seen it myself on the road! It doesn’t make any sense...

Denmark

Interviewed the immigrant students to understand the challenges they face

Created learning aids to support math and social science learning

Created a newsletter of information about Taiwanese culture.

Went for visits to the schools unit for children with special needs and played games, sang songs, read stories and hugged them.

Creation of a movie to raise awareness

Went to Usha Kumari’s house and spoke to her and her parents.

Brought her to join school again and encouraged her towards her future

Started requesting help so that her burnt marks can be treated.

Created small books with stories to inform younger children on issues of sexuality

Designed material for teachers to aid them in instructing the students

Conducted classes with the younger children

Garnered support from organizations working for the same cause

Using the FIDS formula, we made our friends feel included and accepted.
